REPUBLICANS MOST ACTIVE

DEMOCRATIC VOTE WILL GO IN LAST TWO DAYS.

A remarkably heavy vote in Utah this fall is indicated by the progress of the registration to this time. Reports received at the state headquarters yesterday indicated that the registration was unusually heavy in the outside counties, while in Salt Lake county it is believed the registration was the heaviest on record for the third registration day.

The Democratic county committee members on carriages yesterday, but men were at work in the various districts checking up the registration for the purpose of getting a line on the when carriages will be employed and no effort spared to get every Democratic vote in the county registered. From reports received by him yesterday, Mr. C. H. Smith, county clerk, believed the Democratic voters were turning out in good shape. Detailed reports will come in today.

Many of the Republican workers turned in their reports to County Chairman Eldredge last night. An examination of reports from twenty-six districts, selected from all sections of the city, showed that the total registration in Salt Lake City yesterday was 9,132. The registration on the two previous registration days was 6,910, making the total to date 15,122.

Reports to American party headquarters were casual. The county committee had some men at work in the city and county, but will make no great effort until the closing day, when carriages will be used.

The weather was fine yesterday, which helps to explain the heavy registration. Two more days remain, Nov. 1 and Nov. 2.

WOLF HAS POLITICAL BUSINESS

Jewish Leader Bears Message to Republicans.

Political significance attaches to the visit to Salt Lake of Simon Wolf, the noted Jewish leader. Mr. Wolf is known as a Republican of national prominence and, it is stated on good authority, he is a representative of the national administration on his present trip. That Mr. Wolf is interested in the local situation was proved by his statement, made soon after his arrival, that he had important messages for Senator Kearns and Senator Smoot. When informed that neither of the senators was in town, Mr. Wolf arranged an interview with Joseph Lippman, Mr. Lippman called at the Knutsford hotel last night and had a private talk with Wolf. Later, Mr. Wolf held a long-distance telephone conversation with Senator Smoot and also reached Senator Kearns by wire.

Mr. Wolf expressed great regret when he learned that both senators were out of town. "I'm very sorry," he said, "I have been instructed to see them and deliver messages to them."

Presuming that Mr. Wolf sought the Utah senators for the purpose of proposing something to patch up Republican differences, it would not be surprising to know what sort of plan he had to suggest. Mr. Wolf is a diplomat of note. This furnishes a reason for his selection as the man who will make the "round" tour of Utah. No amateur diplomat should attempt to monkey with the local Republican situation.

COMMITTEE FOR COCKRAN.

Men Who Will Entertain the New Yorker While Here.

Samuel Newhouse, E. A. Robertson, John T. Cairne, E. A. Hartenstein and B. B. Quinn were yesterday named by Chairman Bourke as a committee to meet Robert Cockran when the noted Democrat arrives in Salt Lake, and to arrange for his entertainment here. Mr. Cockran will speak in the Salt Lake theatre next Monday evening.

Salt Lake is fortunate in being given an opportunity to hear the noted orator this season, as he makes but six addresses during the campaign. The list of places comprises New York, Chicago, Kansas City, Salt Lake, Butte and Indianapolis. Mr. Cockran speaks in Kansas City Saturday and will come from there directly to Salt Lake. From Salt Lake he goes to Butte and then to Indianapolis.

Roberts at Lehi Tonight.

B. H. Roberts will begin his series of speeches for the Democratic party by an address at Lehi tonight. While de-

Catarrh of the Stomach

A Pleasant, Simple, but Safe and Effective Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to indigestion. The usual symptoms are a full or bloated sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general run-down, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlan, the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Digestive Acid, Ascorbic Acid, Little Nux, Golden Seal and Fruit Acid. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. R. S. Workman, Chicago Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge from the sinuses back into the throat reaches the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found fresh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, Catarrh of the stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

finite arrangements have not been made, it is understood Mr. Roberts will deliver six or eight speeches in different sections of the state during the campaign. He has long been recognized as one of the ablest orators of the party, and the committee expects much from his tour.

POWERS IN JUAB.

Makes Speeches at Levan and Nephi.

(Special to The Herald.)
Nephi, Oct. 18.—An ovation such as has never been known in Nephi before greeted Judge Powers today. He was met at the train by both the Ladies' and Gentlemen's Democratic clubs and was escorted to the party headquarters. After lunch they all went to Levan, eleven miles south, accompanied by the Nephi band, where the people had turned out en masse to greet Judge Powers, and for an hour and a half he gave them a heart to heart talk. The opera house here tonight was filled with an audience of about 100 people. Judge Powers commenced by speaking of the work of the ladies' and gentlemen's Democratic clubs and was espoused of the integrity of James H. Doyle, the nominee for governor. He then took up the old idea of Republicans claiming a victory in the election. His arguments completely shattered most of their claims here in Utah. He explained the true status of the irrigation bill and placed the credit where it belonged. He explained his position on the tariff and said that if elected he would vote for a tariff on raw wool, raw hides and raw materials, but would vote for the removal of the tariff on all manufactured articles. He closed his speech by calling the people's attention to Chairman Smith's threat to turn the Mormon Democratic vote to Cutler and asked them to see if it was this threat was not made good. The close of his speech Judge Powers was presented with a bouquet of flowers by the Ladies' Parker club. Mr. Powers will leave this morning for Salt Lake by way of Provo.

Always a Democrat.

To The Salt Lake Herald:
I have been accused on the streets by a number of persons and asked as to whether or not I was a Democrat. The parties having seen my name published as one of the signers of the petition of the so-called American party, they thought I had signed the petition and that they might obtain official recognition and for no other purpose, as was well known to the party presenting the petition. These so-called Americans could have obtained all they claim or ask for by affiliating with and supporting the Democratic ticket, as they have consistently done since the division on party lines, protested against the use of ecclesiastical influence in political matters and denounced the union of church and state.

I have been voting the Democratic ticket for fifty years and shall vote that ticket at the November election. If the American party is using my name for any other purpose than the one above stated, such action is a breach of confidence and an exhibition of bad faith. Salt Lake, Utah. E. D. HOGGE.

Resigns from Committee.

(Special to The Herald.)
Ogden, Oct. 18.—Republican county chairman E. T. Hulanski this morning received the resignation of Frank R. Christensen, assistant secretary of the committee and one of the principal workers around headquarters. He has been named by the American party for superintendent of public instruction. Chairman Hulanski's position and that of the committee would likely get changed if Christensen's resignation were accepted. Mr. Christensen's letter and probably would not.

Political Notes.

Chairman Bampton was yesterday advised by the national committee that James M. Brinson of Colorado would arrive in a few days to speak in this state during the balance of the campaign.

W. E. Smythe, H. C. Lund and J. W. Smith addressed the Democratic rally at the opera house in Riverfront this evening. The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock so that Mr. Smythe may give his speech in time to catch his train for Montrose, Colo. His Riverfront speech will be Mr. Smythe's last address in Utah.

W. J. Horne, George C. Riser, Jr. and Ray Van Cott will speak in the Granger meeting house this evening.

A rally arranged especially for Democratic women will be held at the residence of Mrs. W. A. Hodges, 228 North Sixth West, this evening. W. H. Brainerd and others will speak and light refreshments will be served between the hours of 8 and 11.

A solo by Miss Agatha Berkhoel and free dancing are promised those attending this evening. The meeting will be under the direction of the Lincoln Republican club of the Fifth district.

Mr. Moyle will speak at Joseph today at Judge King at Elsinore. Judge Powers at Salina, Mr. Cobb at Hyrum, S. A. King and W. E. Rydahl in Uintah county, and Messrs. Harmon and Ray in Garfield county.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cohen, state organizer of women's Democratic clubs, will address a meeting of ladies at Ogden this afternoon.

Cutler and Squires work twice today. Elsinore being favored in the afternoon and Moroni in the evening. Livingston and Meakin will be at large in Emery county. Judge Reed at Park City, Suberland and Wells at Heber, E. O. Leatherwood at Kamas, Willard Done at Kanosh, M. C. Davis in Box Elder county, Jimmy at Lehi, Alvin Eldredge at Koosharem and James Ingelbrecht and Judge H. S. Tanner at Kaysville.

Abel John Evans of Lehi was a caller at Democratic state headquarters yesterday. Mr. Evans says the Democrats of Utah county are not making much noise, but are working hard with a good fighting chance to carry the county.

GARNETT GETS LONG SENTENCE IN PRISON

San Francisco, Oct. 18.—Alexander J. Garnett, who shot and killed Mayor J. M. McHugh at the Palace hotel on Nov. 15, 1902, and who was convicted of the crime of manslaughter, was today sentenced by Superior Judge Lawlor to serve fifteen years' imprisonment in the penitentiary at San Quentin. An appeal will be taken to the supreme court of the state.

PHILIPPINE WAR ITEM.

Manila, Oct. 18.—A force under Lieutenant Pogue of the constabulary has defeated a large number of Pulanes in the mountains of eastern Samar, killing the notorious outlaw Oyomo and fifty of his followers.

CHOSE HORRIBLE DEATH.

New York, Oct. 18.—Despondent because he had failed to make a success of his business since coming to this country a few months ago, Paul Godard, a French expert in precious stones, today jumped from one of the approaches of the new Williamsburg bridge and was dashed to death on the stone pavement, 125 feet below. Godard is said to have come to a well-known French family and to have once been an officer in the French army.

WILL TREAT WITH JAPAN

WAR WILL BE PROSECUTED TO THE BITTER END.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 18.—2:06 a. m.—An announcement from Washington saying that the administration believed that the time for mediation in the far eastern war was approaching has created an unfavorable impression in government circles here, where there is an inclination to associate it with the intervention of the Associated Press and a diplomat at Tokio suggesting the propriety of renewing the efforts in behalf of the restoration of peace. The idea of peace, it is asserted here, could hardly come more inopportune, with the Japanese in the full flush of victory. It has aroused only resentment and there is no doubt that if President Roosevelt should actually attempt to open the question at this time he would meet with a rebuff.

An official of the foreign office with whom the correspondent of the Associated Press talked declined to believe that the United States seriously contemplated tendering her good offices at this time. He could not believe that such an overture would be entertained unless Japan had directly indicated a wish to end the struggle. That Japan would be glad to make peace under the present favorable circumstances he did not doubt, but Russia was by no means ready to do so.

"All the powers fully understand Russian's position," said he. "It has been made quite clear. Russia, as the emperor announced, will make peace directly with Japan. No intervention of an outside power can be tolerated. If Japan desires to end the war she must apply directly through such mediators as she may choose, the United States if she prefers, but no representations not coming directly from Tokio would even be answered. If she has any propositions to submit, however, they would, of course, receive the consideration to which they are entitled."

In reply to a suggestion that possibly a personal friend like Emperor William might be in a position to approach Emperor Nicholas, the official said he was convinced Emperor William would not tender what he knew would be unacceptable. Emperor Nicholas, he added, much as he personally detested the idea of the war, was firmly resolved to prosecute it to the bitter end and attain the purpose he announced in his proclamation when Japan began hostilities.

SAILED NORTHWARD.

Fakkebjerg, Langeland Island, Denmark, Oct. 18.—Three Russian battleships, two torpedo boats and one transport belonging to the Baltic fleet sailed northward this afternoon.

FOURTH SUCCESSIVE DAY OF THE GREAT BATTLE

the village of Shalanditz, half way between Lone Tree hill and Shalke, and simultaneously the storming of the former, thereby gaining two positions, the highest importance on the south bank of the Shalke river.

There was no fighting on the Russian left yesterday and the Japanese operations on the extreme right, evidently intended to cut the railroad below the Hun river, have failed, the Japanese being unable to get beyond Snokhning, two miles west of the Shalke railroad station. Field Marshal Oyama seems to be massing troops against the Russian center and the war office here expects that he will make a desperate effort tonight or tomorrow to re-take the two vital positions.

The general staff believes that the storming of Lone Tree hill for valor and slaughter will occupy a place by itself in military annals. Kuropatkin, under whose eye the assault was made, rechristened it Poutloff hill, in honor of the man who led the attack at the head of the Second brigade of the East

MOSTLY ARTILLERY FIRE.

Fighting of Oct. 17 Was Confined to Russian Center.

Mukden, Oct. 18.—The fighting of Oct. 17 was confined to the Russian center

Siberian rifle division and who was subsequently decorated on the field with the St. George's cross.

Hazardous Attack.

The hill is a precipitous, rocky height and although the Japanese had occupied it only a short time they had thrown up very strong defenses. The river running at its foot increased the difficulty of the task, but it was scaled and carried successfully against the unprecedented opposition of a Japanese division, 14,000 men, with many guns. The Russian losses were terrible. The fighting on the crest of the hill was altogether with cold steel. The Russian officers with swords aloft leading the scaling column were literally lifted in the air by the Japanese bayonets and the Japanese then bayoneted the first of the Russian soldiers, who piled in the trenches. All the dead in the trenches were bayoneted, their weapons bearing marks of the dreadful combat.

The Russian line, according to the war office, still extends eastward along the Shalke river to Uindupai, where it crosses the Mukden-Bentshanpuz road. Further east the roads leading north from Bentshan and Fushan, whence there is a direct road to the Mukden, are also strongly held, it being feared that Oyama might shift the weight to his right, thus reversing the situation at the opening of the post-war. There is no doubt, however, that the Japanese left, in other words duplicating the strategic disposition at Liao Yang.

While the war office holds out hope that Kuropatkin may resume the general offensive it is privately admitted that the chances are against him unless there is some fortunate development. It being explained that his assumption of the aggressive at Shalke and along the railroad was vital, as the withdrawal of his left wing would be made under the shelter of his right.

The dispatch of the Associated Press from Mukden filed early this morning and announcing that the artillery fire continued unceasingly throughout last night indicates doubtless that there will be important developments today. No indication was given, however, of the object of the firing or which side was the aggressor.

Some of the newspapers, notably the Russ, boldly hail the Russian successes at Lone Tree hill as complete evidence that Kuropatkin will again make a genuine advance along the whole line, and constantly since the beginning of the war. "The Russians Resumed the Advance," Kuropatkin Has Crossed the Shalke River. He Has 280,000 Men and 300 Guns."

TRENCHES FILLED WITH DEAD.

Ghastly Sight After the Storming of Lone Tree Hill.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 18, 7:04 p. m.—Nemirovich Danchenko, the well known Russian war correspondent, telegraphs a description of the recapture of Lone Tree hill, which fell into the hands of the Japanese during a night attack while the Russians slept. He says:

"The Russian Kuropatkin the following day ordered the hill to be retaken and the whole Russian artillery concentrated at 5 in the morning and showed the hill to the Japanese army. A spectacle lasting the entire day. It seemed that no human being could outlive such an ordeal, yet the defenders remained manfully at their posts."

"The sun was already declining when Kuropatkin gave the order to storm. Six regiments advanced, forcing the river in the face of murderous fire. The enemy determined to make us pay dearly for it. He poured a hail of gun and rifle fire on our advancing columns, but nothing could stop them. They reached the other side, clambering up and at 11 o'clock at night the position was in our hands. I have just visited the scene of our triumph. The trenches are filled with dead Japanese and Russians clutched in a death embrace."

I saw no such ghastly sight at Shalke or at Pienma. The credit for the achievement belongs chiefly to the Thirty-sixth and Nineteenth rifles. Four other regiments participated. The Thirty-sixth attacked from the east and the Nineteenth from the west. Poutloff, leading the brigade and personally directing the attack, was the first to reach the summit and was in the thick of the fiercest fighting round the Japanese guns. The Japanese gunners died at their guns, Kuropatkin personally thanked the heroes for their achievement. The captured guns were brought to Mukden."

SAKHAROFF'S REPORT.

Japanese Attack On Right Wing Repulsed Monday Night.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 18.—The general staff has received the following dispatch from General Sakharoff, dated today:

"The Russians repulsed a Japanese attack on their right wing during the night of Oct. 17 and during the day. The Japanese were repulsed by the village of Shalanditz, on the bank of the Shalke river and east of Shalke. The enemy strongly bombarded the captured village, but did not advance to the attack on Lone Tree hill, now called Poutloff hill."

The work of the burying of dead proceeded all night long. Military honors were paid the Japanese dead. "A considerable concentration of the enemy's troops has been observed at Shalke river and was mostly artillery fire, the Japanese using big guns and high explosive shells. During the nine days of continuous fighting the losses were never less than 1,000 men. The hospitals are hardly able to handle the wounded. Nevertheless they have performed wonders.

The Chinese have deserted all the villages and the troops are using the woodwork of their houses for fuel. The country south is desolated. The Japanese still seem to be exerting their selves to force the Russians out of Mukden. A battle is assured in the positions surrounding the town.

It becomes more and more evident that the resources of the country cannot support a large army. This season's crops are spoiled. General Kuropatkin remains with the troops, having abandoned his headquarters at Mukden.

Short War Stories.
Tokio, Oct. 18, 2:30 p. m.—A telegram from Field Marshal Oyama received today says: "On the night of Oct. 17 the enemy made two fierce counter attacks against the right column of the left army, besides a counter attack on a small scale in the direction of the center and right armies. We repulsed them entirely. The enemy retreated, leaving a great number of dead."

London, Oct. 18.—The Russian successes caused a considerable slump in Japanese stock on the stock exchange today, which was further aided by the widest reports, including the capture of General Kuropatkin. At 12:30 Japanese stock was down 1½ per cent.

Mukden, Oct. 18, 5:30 a. m.—It rained during the night, but the roar of the artillery did not cease for a moment. The day broke cold and with a cutting wind. The roads have been ruined by the rain.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 18, 7:05 p. m.—Up to this hour no fresh news has been received from the front. The Tokyo report referring to the capture of Japanese guns probably refers to the Lone Tree hill fight.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 18.—A special dispatch from Mukden says the Chinese villagers are actively aiding the Japanese. General Sakharoff it is believed, was fired upon from a hut and five of his escort were wounded.

MILLIONS MORE NEEDED.

Latest Estimate For Postoffice Appropriation.

Washington, Oct. 18.—At the cabinet meeting today Postmaster General Payne took up with the president the estimates of appropriation for the post-office department, submitting to the president the figures. The postmaster general with a view to holding down the appropriations to bedrock figures carefully revised the estimates submitted by the chiefs of bureaus. The total amount estimated for the needs of the department is $182,748,095, as against an appropriation for the current fiscal year of $170,500,000. The increase in the estimates for the ensuing year over the appropriation for the current year being $12,248,095.

The closeness with which the figures have been scanned, Mr. Payne said, is shown in the fact that in the office of the postmaster general the assistant treasury general and the first, second, third and fourth assistants, and in the geographical division, the total increase over the present fiscal year asked from congress is but $39,000.

The figures for the postmaster general's office show a reduction of $5,000. Clearly the total deficiency which congress will be asked to provide for the department for the current year is included in the amount of increase asked for or rural free delivery.

The total postal revenue for the year ended June 30, 1904, was $143,582,624. The estimated revenue for 1905 on the basis of 8 per cent increase is $155,006,090. The appropriation for 1905 is $170,500,000, leaving a deficit for 1905 of $14,317,910. The estimated revenue for 1906 is $170,500,000, estimated expenditures, $183,748,095, estimated deficit, $13,248,095. The current appropriation by congress for the free delivery service for the current year is $20,814,600, and the estimate for the appropriation for the same purpose during the next fiscal year is $26,322,900.

The cabinet also received a report from Secretary McFadden indicating that progress has been made toward carrying out the president's instructions respecting the officials involved in the general Slocum difficulty. The postmaster general also told of what had been accomplished toward smoothing out the difficulties that had arisen between the canal zone authorities and the Panama government, and it is expected that a formal statement will be issued defining the policy which the government is to adopt toward the zone.
